

Increase your student's Environmental Literacy!

“Talking Animals!”

What do they have to say about caring for animals and caring for our planet?

Get ready to be surprised:

Reserving Now for 2016-2017 school year!

A favorite of Elementary students!

Interactive Pre-K - 6 Live Presentation, STEM aligned, with audience participation. “Talking Animals” is a great way to interest young students and introduce them to preserving endangered species and protecting the environment.

Live Talking Parrots - colorful, playful representatives of endangered animals.

Conservation Tech Inventions - Flying Drone demonstration!
How do drones & robots help animals?

KoKo the Gorilla - world famous as the only primate that talks using sign language knows 1,000 english words and their meanings.

Our International A-Team - youth role models inspire and motivate your students to engage and excel.

Dolphins - among the smartest of mammals create personal names for each other.

FREE CDs of music & nature songs for classroom listening.

2 tons Free Carbon Offsets purchased on behalf of your school. Framed Certificate provided. Help fight Climate Change!

Free ebooks of Poetry and Art, “Endangered Animals of Nepal”.

Vocabulary List and Topics of Discussion handouts

5 Followup Programs for ongoing engagement.

- Endangered Wildlife Art Exchange
- Local A-Team wildlife clubs
- Da Vinci Challenge: Build a Drone
- One Planet Classrooms: Skype Pals
- Recycle Smartphones into "Forest Guardians"

Alex the talking African Grey parrot - mastered over 100 english words and their meanings.